Community Fundraising Guidelines

Individuals, companies and organizations intending to host fundraising activities to benefit MidState Medical Center are asked to comply with the following guidelines:

1. Approval of the activity, by way of MidState Medical Center's Community Fundraising Registration Form, must be received from MidState Medical Center's Department of Philanthropy to conduct an event whose proceeds will benefit MidState Medical Center, a MidState Medical Center affiliate or any program developed and managed by MidState Medical Center.
2. The individual, organization or corporation hosting the fundraising activity is solely responsible for complying with all federal, state and local laws governing charitable fundraising, gift reporting and special events. This includes obtaining any state or local licensing, event permits & costs associated therein.
3. All checks and cash from activity participants must be collected and managed by the fundraising activities organizer and should not be made out to nor submitted to MidState Medical Center.
4. At the conclusion of the fundraising activity, the event organizer will submit their donation from the net proceeds to MidState Medical Center's Department of Philanthropy on behalf of the fundraising activity. All funds are required to be submitted to MidState Medical Center within 45 days of the activity. The check must be payable to: MidState Medical Center. MidState Medical Center will not be responsible for any event expenses incurred in the development of the activity.
5. All print and publicity material, audio or visual displays used for the fundraising activity will clearly indicate proceeds to benefit MidState Medical Center or a program or affiliate thereof. If there is more than one beneficiary please state the percentage of the proceeds that will benefit MidState Medical Center on all promotional materials.
6. Please contact the Department of Philanthropy for any requests of promotional items.
7. MidState Medical Center is not financially or otherwise liable for the promotion and / or staging of fundraising events by any third-party organization or individual. The sponsoring organization or individual may not incur any financial or other obligations on behalf of MidState Medical Center. Event organizers must provide insurance certificates as required by federal, state or local laws. MidState Medical Center cannot be held responsible in any way for casualties and/or situation that occur at your fundraising event or promotion.

MidState Medical Center reserves the right to refuse to be named the beneficiary of any fundraising activity deemed inappropriate or detrimental to the mission and vision of MidState Medical Center, its affiliates or programs.
